

Faculty Leadership Programmes

The Faculty Leadership programme is meant for senior administrators and faculty members of Higher Education Institutions. The school teachers are also included under FLP. The main aim of FLP is to facilitate in bringing out complete change in the administration of the education institutions and the quality of education provided. The FLP consist of three types of programmes, the Global University Administrators Training Programme, the Academic Leadership Programme and the School Teachers Leadership Programme.

Centre for Leadership

Key Takeaways of FLP

Global University Administrators Training Programme

- + Leadership in Universities
- + Blue Ocean Strategy in Universities
- + Establishing Global Visibility
- + Future Proof Curriculum Development
- + Twinning Role of Teaching & Research
- + Quality Mandate in University
- + IT & Digitization of University
- + Developing Entrepreneurial Universities

Academic Leadership Training Programme

- + Knowing your Institution's Culture & Climate
- + Knowing your Students
- + Knowing the Current Developments
- + Knowing the Job Market Requirements
- + Understanding your Responsibility and KPIs
- + Mapping the Above Five for Best Results

School Teachers Leadership Programme

- + Understanding the Psychology of School Students
- + Knowing your Personality
- + Aligning student's Competency with Education
- + Building Morality and Integrity Among Students
- + Providing Fun Learning Environment
- + Facilitating Career Counselling

Email: director.ccf@creseent.edueation yasmeen@creseent.edueation

Contact:

Dr. Haider Yasmeen

Professor of Leadership & Organisational Behaviour
Crescent School of Business
Director, Centre for Leadership

Cell: +91 98843 80227