EVENT DESCRIPTION:

The Department of Commerce, in association with Association of Muslim Professionals (AMP), Chennai Chapter, conducted motivational guest lecture on 4th October 2023, from 10.30am to 12 pm in the convention centre.

The resource person for this event was Mr Wali Rahmani, Lawyer, Social Entrepreneur and Founder Chairman of UMEED Academy, Kolkata. It was conducted for the students of Department of Commerce, Shift I. The session Convenor was Dr Ayub Khan Dawood, Professor and Dean, School of Social Sciences and Humanities and Co-convenor was Dr.K.Soundarapandiyam, Associate Professor, Head, Department of Commerce.

SESSION ACTIVITIES:

The session was commenced with the reception team welcoming the guests, compering/emcee was done by Ms. Aishwarya, II BBA G and the session was graced with the Tilawat-eQuran(Quari) by Dr. Sibghatullah Nasir, Assistant Professor Sr Gr, Department of Commerce, followed by TamilThaiVazthu by final year B Com students.

Nothing can be more reassuring and heart warming than affectionate words of welcome address, which was given by Dr. Ayub Khan Dawood Dean, School of Social Sciences and Humanities.

Dr. N. Raja Hussain, Registrar BSACIST, felicitated the chief guest with shawl and mementos, later given the felicitation address to the audience.

Later, Ms,Dunisha,II B com Hons gave introduction of the chief guest, Mr Wali Rahmani and welcomed sir to take over the session.

Mr. Wali Rahmani sir started from scratch and created great identity for himself. Sir, spoke about his life story and made students to understand about the leadership, sir mentioned there should be sacrifice, hard work and intention to be a successful person. He spoke about himself as a source of inspiration to students by giving them examples from his own life.

The most important aspect of the session was when sir mentioned that he has successfully crowd funded Rs 6 crore in just six days for his plan to build an English-medium school for underprivileged children. Rahmani Sir had faced difficulties in securing funds for the school's construction, but his viral video appeal touched many people, resulting in an outstanding response. Bank authorities initially suspected a scam due to the high number of transactions, but after verifying Rahmani's documents, they appreciated his effort and promised to recommend corporate social responsibility funds.

Rahmani' sir also mentioned that his plan to build an English-medium school in South 24 Pargana, West Bengal, was facing hurdles as the funds he had collected in the past three years had dried up and currently the school has 300 students runs out of rented premises and there are around 1500 children awaiting the admission.

Sir informed students that if the intention of the work/job which we carry out is pure, always there will be positive remark on it. Finally sir informed students to posses the qualities of a leader rather to be a leader. The students realised the importance of passion and consistent efforts to chase the passion.

Finally the session was concluded with the vote of thanks by Ms.Darshini ,II B B A General, where she thanked the Cheif guest Mr.Wali Rahmani sir for his inputs on leadership, Management of BSACIST, Vice Chancellor- Prof. Dr. T. Murugesan sir, Dr. N. Thajuddin sir, Pro-Vice Chancellor, Advisor -Dr. P.S. Syed Masood Jamali sir and Dr. V. Murugesan sir, Registrar- Dr.N.Raja Hussain sir for their contribution and expressed gratitude for the smooth conducting the event.

She thanked Dr Ayub Khan Dawood sir Professor and Dean, School of Social Sciences and Humanities and Dr.K.Soundarapandiyan sir, Associate Professor, Head, Department of Commerce for organising the event in successful manner. Finally she also thanked all the faculty members of commerce department, technicians and students for their support and presence.
